From Burnout to Backroads — Finding Your Way Back to Yourself

In this honest, relatable talk, fourth-generation farmer and former PBS host Inga Orth shares her personal journey through burnout, perfectionism, and emotional exhaustion — and how she slowly found her way back through therapy, boundaries, and the radical act of rest. With humor, grit, and hard-won wisdom, Inga invites audiences to reflect on their own burnout cycles and explore what healing can look like in real life — without the spa days or Instagram filters.

Not Just Wine and Cheese

Hostess: Michele Stanley

Location: 6321 Hubbard Avenue, Middleton

Time: 6:30-9:00 pm

Date: January 16 Click here to register

NJWC is a monthly gathering that is held at member's homes. We typically meet on the third Friday night of the month. These gatherings provide a casual opportunity to chat with old and new friends. The potluck style of sharing appetizers and desserts, along with wine (or beverage of choice) enhances the evening. Husbands/partners or other guests are welcome.

Service Partner

Nominate a Local Nonprofit - The Service Committee is seeking member input for selection of our 2026-27 nonprofit service partner by Feb 15.

Please review the Service Partner Nonprofit Selection Criteria, to learn about selection guidelines. To nominate a nonprofit send an email to service@whosnew.org including the following information. Incomplete information will hamper the committee's ability to include your nominee in the process.

Member Name
Nonprofit Name
Nonprofit Contact Person
Nonprofit Address
