Open Letter from Ken Baun to Who's New in Madison

With the end of this year, on behalf of the Leadership Council and all who volunteer for Open Doors for Refugees, I wish to thank members of Who's New in Madison for your generosity toward Madison's newcomers. We have come to admire the entire Service Committee, and co-leaders Cindy Jaggi and Kelli Kreienkamp, for their incredible initiative, leadership, hard work and success. All of us have been touched and amazed by your tireless, extraordinary accomplishments. At the end of December, with the proceeds of your Holiday Bazaar, you gifted us with over $9,000 in cash and over $1,000 in gift cards – truly remarkable. And that's on top of the $20,000 you and your partner organizations have already raised and given to Open Doors, not to mention donations of winter clothing, pillows, pots and pans, furniture and volunteer hours. Cindy and Kelli and the amazing women of Who's New, we are deeply struck with awe, admiration, and gratitude.

The money you raise for Open Doors is already making a tremendous difference in the lives of the people we serve.

We wish you joyous holidays, celebrated with the folks you love.

Deeply grateful,

Ken Baun
